Pricing for After School Clubs, Cubs, Scouts and other organised groups.

We are able to offer Forest School sessions for children, parents, carers and group leaders at our woodland site or in an area of your establishment grounds.

Prices will be dependent on the number of staff required and resources provided.

Sessions are £40 per hour for groups of up to 30 young people accompanied by their usual staff ratio and include all activities, equipment, insurance and marshmallows. If sessions of three hours or longer are required and you wish to have cooked food there will be an additional charge of £30.

For a group of 30 children attending a 2 hour session this price would work out at £2.66 per child and includes one HW staff member, drinks, marshmallows, activities relating to the specific needs of the group, equipment and insurance. Food can also be provided for open fire cooking for which a minimum of a three hour session is required, along with the additional £30.

A qualified and experienced teacher and Forest School leader will attend all sessions, if additional Forest School staff are required, their time will be charged depending on the required levels of training. With sufficient notice we can provide qualified teachers, Forest School leaders or suitably experienced assistants. All staff attending will have current DBS certificates and experience working with young people.
